

1917: Year of War and Revolution
4 November 2017, 12.45-5.30

Presented by the Canberra Region branch of the Labour History Society and the School of History, The Australian National University

Saturday, 4 November 2017, Law Link Theatre at the Australian National University, 12.45pm-5.30pm

12.45-2.40

Frank Bongiorno, 'Welcome'
Humphrey McQueen, '1917: a revolution against Capital?'
Peter Ellett, 'Two Takes on Taylorism – Sydney and Moscow'
Joan Beaumont, 'Was the second conscription referendum winnable?'
Sarah Lethbridge, '1917 in the Noel Butlin Archives' (tbc)

2.40-3.20 (Coffee/viewing of 1917 Strike Exhibition at Noel Butlin Archives Centre, Menzies Library)

3.20-5.30

Colin Milner, 'Robert Randolph Garran and the War Precautions Act'
Joseph Davis, 'Coledale NSW: the Epicentre of Australian Anti-Capitalist Activism in 1917'
Sue Tracey, 'The 1916 Forged Five Pound notes-criminal enterprise or IWW plot?'
John Lamb, 'Shionomisaki Memorial to the Missing'
Karen Fox, 'The Order of the British Empire—An Order for Britain's Everybody?'

There will be a dinner afterwards at the Golden Drum Chinese restaurant, Shop 1/14 Childers St, Canberra Australian Capital Territory 2601. If you wish to attend, please email billthompson@tpg.com.au by Thursday 2 November. Entry to the Golden Drum is via University Avenue.

Please direct all enquiries to: frank.bongiorno@anu.edu.au

