

Remembering Stuart Macintyre:
Historian, Mentor, Colleague

24th-25th February 2022
Arts West North Tower Room 253
The University of Melbourne

Professor Stuart Macintyre (1947-2021) was one of Australia's most outstanding historians and public intellectuals. An extraordinarily prodigious scholar, his scholarship covered many fields including the history of social movements, Australian public policy, intellectual history and labour history. Stuart was an inspiring teacher and PhD supervisor and mentor; his generous support of the careers of others was a gift from which many have benefited over several decades. He made an enormous contribution to the history profession and to Australian intellectual life more broadly.

This two-day symposium honours and celebrates Stuart's extraordinary contributions across many scholarly fields and topics. It is timed to coincide with the publication of his final book, The Party: The Communist Party of Australia from heyday to reckoning (Allen and Unwin, 2022) published in February 2022.

This event will take place as both an in-person and on-line event.
